Counsel for Respondent No.4 : None

Dated: 27-02-2006

Per G.S. SINGHVI, CJ

We have, in the past, repeatedly observed that a large number of petitions and pleadings filed in the Court are illegible. The present one is also a petition, which is not fully legible. Therefore, we have no option but to dismiss the same. Ordered accordingly.

However, liberty is given to the petitioner to file fresh fully legible petition along with other documents.
